Transgenders display their creative genius

A participant at the fashion show for transgenders held in Ulhasnagar on Friday.

Anamika Gharat

anamika.gharat@shrihanamuni.com

KALYAN: More than 80 transgenders from Mumbai, Pune and Thane participated in a fashion show for the third gender in Ulhasnagar on Friday evening.

The show also had several other cultural events along with felicitation of those transgenders who helped people during the pandemic. The show titled Equality was organised by a local NGO, Vanya Foundation, that claimed to spread joy among the people who had a tough time surviving the pandemic.

Gigs, fashion show, dance performances and singing talents were showcased by the people of this community.

The secretary of Vanya Foundation, Rekha Thakur, said, "The community has faced so many issues that are unheard and not solved by any authority in the city during the pandemic. Those who had savings helped the others to survive. The show was held to give some peace to these people who have so much talent."

Third genders are mostly dependent on begging or money they earn from people on any auspicious occasion. Their earnings are affected while no one supported them for food.

Veena Kene, 28, a Vitthalwadi resident said, "For nine months, we suffered due to lack of food or money. No one thought about our wellbeing. We heard about the show and decided to give it a go. It was good to forget our sorrows for some time.

She added that they have realised that their traditional means of earning will no longer be fruitful. "Through the event, we also explored new means of earnings by meeting people from different fields," she added.

Report on "Reshaping Gender Attitudes".

The WDC organized a one day webinar on "Reshaping Gender Attitudes". On 4th January 2021. Prof Anika Valecha welcomed all for the webinar. The resource person was Adv. Chander Rohra. He has more than 15 years of experience in his field.

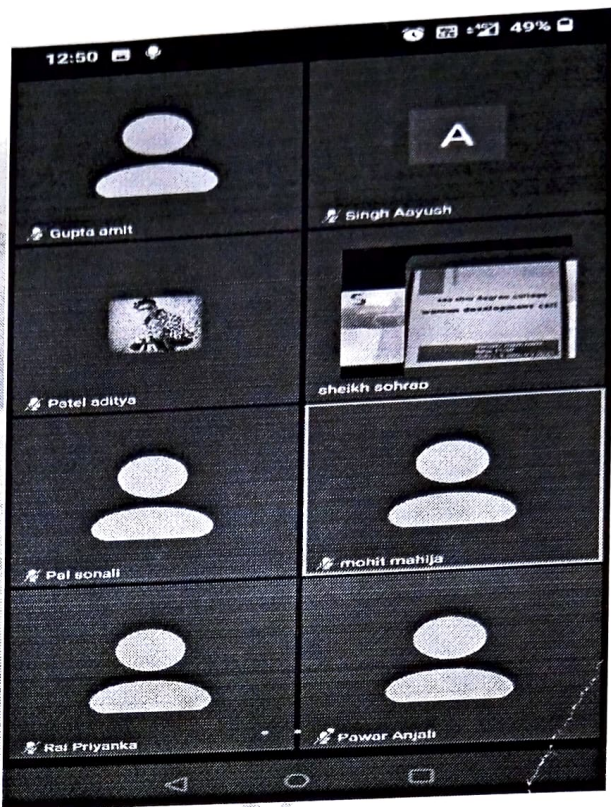

The session was from 12.00 pm to 1.00 pm. Technical details were managed by Prof. Jamal Athar. Participants were very much keen and enthusiastic during the session.

Adv. Chander Rohra also used PPT while taking the session. The webinar focused on two guiding principles i.e fairness and impartiality. The resource person also explained how Home is where people spend most of their time and is often the first place where children learn gender discrimination. The webinar also focused on how gender equity can create benefits in the society. He focused on the quote When none are ignored, all will thrive.

Students were satisfied with the session and gave positive feedback.
