Tree Plantation Report

A tree plantation drive was organized by Maharashtra Government, Forest department, Thane Region at Karand near Barvi Dam forest area on 8th July, 2018. The Plantation aimed at planting 10,000 plants in 25 hectare area of this forest as Maharashtra Government aims to plant 13 crores plants this year. Many spiritual, educational, disaster management and corporate organizations became part of this drive. NSS unit of Swami Hansmuni Maharaj Degree College of Commerce, Ulhasnagar – 4 was also a part of this Drive.

Understanding the importance of Planting trees to protect our environment and considering it as our prime duty, 11 NSS Volunteers along with their Programme Officer Ninad Kasale participated in the plantation drive. 83 bamboo plants were planted in this forest area by this NSS Unit. The activity was conducted with the support of Principal Kiran Chimnani. Forest Officers Sandip Rokade and Rajendra Hazare were present to guide and encourage the Volunteers.

REPORT

During the NSS week Celebration from 24th Sep, 2018 to 2nd Oct, 2018 the NSS unit of the college conducted a cleanliness awareness drive on 27th Sep, 2018. The Volunteers visited door to door in the locality nearby college and had a word with the residents about the Swachh Bharat Mission.

The volunteers discussed the ill effects of the use of plastic bags in the surroundings thereby helping in the reduction of the plastic use. It was a good drive in support of anti plastic awareness and Swachh Bharat Mission. The students got good feedback from the residents and also the queries regarding the segregation of the dry waste and wet waste of the residents were answered by the volunteers. More than 50 volunteers are work together for cleanliness drive
